THE ART OF FLOWER AND BIRD

A branch of handicrafts which is created by combining the arts of coppersmithing and painting.

This art is one of the most popular Iranian handicrafts, having attracted a lot of supporters in recent years by incorporating the old and new styles into the products of The art of Flower and Bird.

To decorate certain parts of the body, artists draw inspiration from ancient Iranian designs like tazhib, The art of Flower and Bird and miniature art and produce patterns with a wide range of golden colors. Patterns in The art of Flower and Bird are of two types: plants (flowers and shrubs) and animals, which represent the ancient and original culture of Iran.

The art of Flower and Bird products are appropriate, valuable and luxurious gifts to choose from.

Aghajani (the creator of this style) handicrafts are among most well-known Iranian handmade products.

THE ART OF KHATAM VIP

Khatam Kari is the art of decorating objects with delicate and colorful pieces of wood in the form of interwoven mosaics and has a long history among the handicrafts in Iran, especially in Isfahan.

This eye-catching art mainly uses materials like the woods of walnut, jujube, ebony and pear trees along with colorful woods and bone powder all of which sit with the metals of copper, aluminium and brass and create a wonderfully colorful combination. To manufacture Khatam Kari products, firstly pieces of wood and metal are arranged together in geometric patterns and a thin layer is prepared from it and then this wooden-like layer is attached onto the surface of the base.

Thanks to the innovation of its artists, Aghajani Handicrafts has stopped using wooden bases in its Khatam Kari products for years and instead produce them on the base of copper, which has thus made these products look more beautiful, modern and valuable than its own previous one.
